

Village Green Floral and Garden Center: Meet the Landscapers!

When the sun rises on another hot Ohio summer and the children of Wapakoneta prepare for three months of rest, the landscape crew of Village Green Floral and Garden Center are just getting started. In order to beautify Wapakoneta and the surrounding area, the landscapers put their blood, sweat, and maybe even a few tears into their summer job.

services or landscaping in general!

The crew does complete landscape care, including; cutting sod, edging flower beds, removing weeds, planting, creating retaining walls, and lots of mulching. Sometimes, they even do all of these things in one day! Landscaper Ross Kohler even said, "It's amazing seeing the transformation that a owned and run for 39 years, little touches like this are just one way to spot the difference in a hometown, professionally operated garden center.

Village Green is incredibly proud of the generations of locals who have been turning to them for not only landscaping needs, but also hanging baskets, a wide selection of greenhouse-grown annuals, perennials and trees, floral service including funerals and weddings, seasonal decorating, giftware, and more. Stop by 902 South Blackhoof Street to meet the friendly employees of Village Green yourself, or like them on Facebook. Keep in mind, Village Green is open year-round, so be sure to check them out or call at 419-738-2424.

First year landscapers include recent WHS graduates Emilie Brown and Keaton Metz, junior Cal Miller, college junior Zach Dietering, and Army veteran Justin Wheeler. Returning are two more college juniors, Marshall Gerlach and Ross Kohler. Throughout the summer season, you can see these individuals working diligently in the flower-beds around town, so feel free to ask them any questions you may have about their
